

Any Business Company
First Quarter Results Conference Call

April 1, 2014

JOHN SMITH: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen and welcome to the Any Business Company's First Quarter 2014 results conference call. My name is John Smith. I am the Senior VP of Operations and I have the honour of being your host for today's call.

For your information today's call is being recorded and transcribed. I will send out the information on how to access the recording in a future email, along with a copy of the transcript. Before we begin – Operator, has the recording started?

OPERATOR: Yes, it has.

JOHN SMITH: Thank you. Ok, We have three objectives for the call today. First: to give you an update on Any Business Company, which members of our team will present. Second: we will review our budgetary requirements and next steps in this regard. And, finally, to provide you with an opportunity to ask us questions at the end in a Q&A period. Our goal is to provide you with concise an update as possible so the conference call is going to remain in listen-only mode until the Q&A session at the end.

So, without further adieu, I would like to welcome Jane Hancock, President and Chief Operating Officer. Jane?

JANE HANCOCK: Thanks, John. And welcome, everybody. Thanks for taking the time to join us and, as John mentioned, my name is Jane Hancock. I'm the President and COO of Any Business Company.

You know, really, our focus is to steadily build our company, grow our dividends, become a key player in the market, and create a solid framework to do this. The key additions that we've made to the team, recently, have really added that of leadership and support needed to ensure our success.
